

Kristina Williams

Background

Kristina most recently served as Chief Operating Officer at the Hearing, Speech & Deafness Center and was responsible for strategic leadership, oversight and implementation of direct service programs and internal operations. Previously, as Chief Development Officer, she was responsible for all aspects of fundraising and marketing as well as a $3 million capital campaign to expand the center's education services. Ms. Williams has spent the last twenty years working in nonprofit leadership roles and in the field of education. Areas of expertise include strategic planning, managing through change, staff development, capital and endowment campaigns, major gifts, special events, marketing and board development.

Nonprofit Experience

The Blind Childrens Center of Los Angeles, Colorado I Have a Dream Foundation, Glendale Family Service Association and Homestead Hospice and Shelter.

Community Service

Washington Talking Book and Braille Library, Team Survivor Northwest and Puget Sound Girls on the Run