Background

Wendy is a Vice President with The Alford Group, a national consulting firm focusing exclusively on strengthening the capacity of not-for-profit organizations. Since joining Alford in 1999, she has had the honor of working with dozens of local and regional not-for-profits providing consulting in fund raising, organizational development, strategic planning and board/staff development.

Prior to joining Alford, Wendy served 16 years as the Executive Director of the Northwest Kidney Foundation. She has also worked as a Planner with the Developmental Disabilities Board of Snohomish County and Recreation Specialist with Snohomish County Parks and Recreation Department.

Education

Bachelor's degree from Central Washington University

Favorite Things

Wendy lives in Mukilteo with her husband Jon. They have two children, both in college, and she has two fully launched stepsons. In the winter you can find Wendy on the ski slopes, and in the summer training for sprint triathlons, hiking or in her garden. She and her husband enjoy travel and have had the good fortune of visiting many Western and Eastern European countries throughout the years.
