Background

Gina has over 10 years of development experience. Her non-profit experience has primarily been community and economic development. While at Delridge Neighborhoods Development Association for eight years, she served as the Capital Campaign Director for a joint project between DNDA and the West Seattle Food Bank called three projects! one community. She also developed their fundraising program which included transitioning campaign donors to annual donors. She is currently the Development Director for Seattle Goodwill. Her experience includes major gifts, annual giving, special events, house parties, grantwriting, direct mail and leadership succession.

Favorite Things
