

Mike Cheever
Development Director
Puget Sound Blood Center
www.psbcc.org

Background

Mike Cheever is Development Director for the Puget Sound Blood Center. His expertise areas include campaign and strategic planning, turnaround strategies, analytics and prospecting. He regularly donates his time consulting for non-profit organizations and counsels development teams and individual fundraisers. Previously, he served as a senior development director for UW Medicine during their $1 billion campaign and was the senior director of development for the Houston Symphony during a $75 million campaign.